“I am fortunate
to have been part of many productions
at Glimmerglass during Francesca’s tenure, and her support, guidance and friendship have been invaluable to me throughout my career.
Happy 10th anniversary, ‘Cesca!’

ERIC OWENS

my summer at Glimmerglass.
Congratulations, Francesca,
on your 10th anniversary!”

DEBORAH VOIGT
Francesca joined Glimmerglass 10 years ago with a grand vision to enliven the prestigious festival with a full season of concerts, talks, campus art, second stage events and opera for youth. She also reimaged outreach, with projects like the company’s now-renowned Attica Initiative, and added an annual Artist in Residence from her circle of distinguished friends — William Burden, John Corigliano, Christine Goerke, Julie and Nathan Gunn, Isabel Leonard, Jay Hunter Morris, Eric Owens and Deborah Voigt. The Young Artists Program evolved from its corps of emerging opera stars to include musical theater singer/dancers, directors and composers. New works, classics with a twist, and innovative ways to experience art and ideas are her hallmark, along with a commitment to what Francesca calls “artistic citizenship,” making Glimmerglass a model of social responsibility in all aspects of its operations.

The 2020 Glimmerglass Gala celebrates Francesca’s 10th anniversary and the evolution of The Glimmerglass Festival.
